

THE UNIVERSITY OF DENVER STUDENT NEWSPAPER

Online Clarion

Tuesday, February 17, 2009

SECTIONS

- Front Page
- News
- Crime Report
- Features
- Happenings
- Sports
- Editorials
- Arts & Entertainment
- Archive

OPTIONS

- Register
- Login
- About Us
- Message Board
- Events Calendar
- Letter to the Editor
- Classifieds
- Back Issues
- Search

24 HOUR NEWS

LINKS

- University of Denver
- DU's Student Radio Station
- mtvU Best Film On Campus
- Critics Corner
- 9News.com

KENNEDY ADVOCATES SUSTAINABLE CHOICES

More than 1,000 students, faculty, staff and community members gathered in Gates Auditorium last Thursday to hear environmental activist and lawyer Robert F. Kennedy Jr.'s comment on the state of the economy and the environment. Rising out of this economic crisis doesn't have to come at the expense of the environment.

> read more

NEWS

Faculty Senate rejects tobacco free DU initiative

The Faculty Senate voted not to endorse the tobacco-free DU initiative on Friday. The Senate did vote, however, to endorse better enforcement of the current smoking restriction, which bans smoking within 25 feet of university building entrances. "We applaud the efforts of the students who have worked on this proposal.

- Morgridge gets $10 million gift, breaks ground
- Ruckus Network shut down
- Senate kills taping proposal

CRIME REPORT

Crime

Parking lot gate damaged The gate to the courtyard parking lot 306 near Nelson Hall was damaged by unknown persons between Sunday, Feb. 8 at 11 a.m. and Monday, Feb. 9, at 1 p.m. Facilities Management has been notified. Offensive writing on white board Suspicious behavior was reported at Johnson-McFarlane Hall on Monday, Feb.

- Crime

FEATURES

Insight from metafiction author

Editor's Note: Ara 13 is an award-winning metafiction author of the new book Drawers and Booths. He will be coming to DU Thursday from 7-9 p.m. in Lindsay Auditorium. 13 is brought to DU by Sigma Tau Delta, the International English Honor Society. Drawers and Booths is now available at Amazon.

- Insight from metafiction author
- Photo class exhibits work

HAPPENINGS

Happenings

Employers host career fair The Career Center will host employers such as Wells Fargo and Chipotle Mexican Grill at the Winter Career and Internship Fair this Wednesday. The event will take place from 3 to 6 p.m. in the Governor's Ballroom at the Driscoll Student Center.

- Happenings

- Most Commented
- Most Popular
- Most Emailed

Most Recently Commented

- The case on vegetarianism (3)
- Faculty Senate rejects tobacco free DU initiative (1)
- Hookah, hummus and baklava (3)
- Three come down with chicken pox (2)
- Greatest: Michael Jordan or Kobe Bryant (48)
- Students send Holocaust Tolerance Trunk to Vatican (7)
- Not your average pottery (1)

Select an article from the above list

POLL

Have you used juicycampus.com?

- Yes
- No

Submit Vote

View Results

SPORTS

B'ball still needs road win

The DU men's basketball team defeated another conference competitor, University of New Orleans, at home on Saturday afternoon, 59-49, to strengthen their home record to 10-2. Denver (11-14, 6-8 SBC) was defeated on the road by New Orleans (10-16, 5-10 SBC) back in January but led the entire game in Mangess Arena.

- B'ball still needs road win
- DU redeems itself against UNO
- Goodbye Gold Pan
- Pioneers drop to Sooners on Valentine's Day
- Pioneers get thrashed by UNC
- Q&A with long-armed lady Kaetlyn Murdoch
- Split over opening weekend
- Tennis rocks house in East Coast tourney

EDITORIALS

Pro on tobacco-free campus

The tobacco-free policy now under consideration would affect the main DU campus between South High Street on the west and South University Boulevard on the east and from the science buildings at the south of campus too Buchtel Boulevard. In this area, tobacco products would not be able to be used on university property.

- Pro on tobacco-free campus
- Safety periled by stadium construction
- The case on vegetarianism

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

'Coraline' trippy and dark

If you're looking to spend the weekend by taking a younger relative to the movies, this latest project from director Henry Selick may not be your safest bet for a nightmare-free slumber. Based on the acclaimed children's book by Neil Gaiman, "Coraline" is the darkly fantastic tale of a little girl (voiced by Dakota Fanning) who finds herself the target of a deceptively sweet "other-mother," an otherworldly being determined to capture her soul for eternity.

- 'Coraline' trippy and dark
- 'The Pink Panther 2' provides a few cheap laughs
- Alan Hood delivers with Just A Little Taste
- Devotchka rocks hard
- The truth hurts in 'He's Just Not That Into You'

National College Advertising and Marketing | Privacy Policy (8/15/07) | Terms of Use (4/28/08)
Content Submission Agreement (8/23/07) | Copyright Compliance Policy (8/25/07) | RSS Terms of Use